the age of information has spawned a critical focus on human communication in a multimedia world particularly on theories and practices of writing with the worldwide web impacting increasingly on academic and business communication the need has never been greater for advanced study in writing communication and critical thinking across all genres sectors and cultures in recent decades the definitions of new rhetoric have expanded to encompass a variety of theories and movements raising the question of how rhetoric is understood and employed in the twenty first century the essays collected here represent variations on these themes with each attempting to answer the title's deliberately provocative question addressing particularly how the classical art of rhetoric is still relevant today how it is directly related to modern technologies and the new modes of communication they have generated how rhetorical practice is informing research methodologies and teaching and learning practices in the contemporary academy ranging from the georgia coast to the tennessee mountains from the power brokers to tenant farmers ayers depicts a land of startling contrasts ayers takes us from remote southern towns revolutionized by the spread of the railroads to the statehouses where democratic redeemers swept away the legacy of reconstruction from the small farmers trapped into growing nothing but cotton to the new industries of birmingham from abuse and intimacy in the family to tumultuous public meetings of the prohibitionists he explores every aspect of society politics and the economy detailing the importance of each in the emerging new south central to the entire story is the role of race relations from alliances and friendships between blacks and whites to the spread of jim crows laws and disfranchisement the teeming nineteenth century south comes to life in these pages the economic and social problems of modern scotland are at the centre of current debate about regional economic growth social improvement and environmental rehabilitation in this book as relevant today as when it was first published in 1975 anthony slaven argues that the extent and causes of these problems are frequently underestimated thus making development policies less than fully effective the major economic and social weaknesses of the west of scotland are shown to be rooted in the regions former strengths the author demonstrates how although the region and its people have resisted change a thriving and self reliant nineteenth century economy based on local resources and manpower has given way in the present century to vanishing skills and products unemployment and social deprivation since 1945 economic and social planning has helped to improve the situation although many difficulties remain seen in the historical perspective provided by this revealing study the present industrial problems of the west of scotland and their remedies become clearer mr slaven argues that the older industries deserve more help for without this he believes the ineffectiveness of development policies is likely to be perpetuated this book was first published in 1975 in this book augusto rodr guez provides a historical survey of the different paradigms of christianity in order to understand how and why the church has changed her concept of being the church and of mission this book will help in understanding how the different paradigms of christianity throughout history have changed the church s self understanding of being the church and of mission rodr guez s aim is to provide an opportunity for christians to see the different paradigms the church has gone through and understand the present situation of the church in order to live out as fully as possible the new testament understanding of its mission and better accomplish the task
